3.3.0 Nomination and Election of Active, International, Candidate, and Affiliate Members.

- a. The documents of applications will be forwarded to the chair of the Membership and Credentials Committee. That committee shall thoroughly review the applicant's qualifications and present its recommendations to the Board of Directors. The Board shall have the sole right to approve the applicant's qualifications and nominate the applicant for membership. Less than a simple majority affirmative vote by the Board shall disqualify the applicant for membership at that time.
- b. The names of applicants who are nominated by the Board shall be announced in writing to all voting members prior to the next scheduled business meeting.
- c. The New Member Applicants will be presented to the Board of Directors for initial approval (in person or by other means) and then to the membership, at the annual Business meeting, for any further discussion, voting and induction into the society.
- 3.4.0 Severance of Membership. Membership in the Society may be revoked or terminated for unethical, immoral, or dishonorable conduct or loss of license, diploma or board certification. Each case shall be considered by the Board of Directors prior to revocation of membership. The member involved shall be given an opportunity for a hearing before the Board. At the conclusion of the hearing, the decision of the Board shall be final.
- 3.5.0 Suspension of Membership. The following shall constitute grounds for suspension of membership:
 - a. Nonpayment of required dues after two years. Dues statements shall be mailed annually with the third and final statement sent by certified mail. The final statement will include information to the effect that if payment is not received within 30 days, membership in the Society will be automatically changed to inactive member status

b. Suspension may be reversed by action of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICIALS

- 4.1.0 Officers. The officers of the Society shall be the President, President-Elect, Past President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. They shall perform the usual duties attendant to their respective offices as outlined in the rules and regulations. All officers shall serve until their successors have been elected and installed in office. The President will serve a term of one year unless the Board of Directors votes by two-thirds approval to extend the term due to extraordinary circumstances. The office of the President shall alternate between Otolaryngology and Neurosurgery with a representative from the category of "Other" to be selected every fifth year. If an appropriate candidate for the office of the President cannot be identified by the Nominating Committee in the "Other" category membership, the Board of Directors may vote to approve "skipping" the fifth year for that cycle and proceeding with a new cycle of alternating Otolaryngology and Neurosurgery. The President-Elect shall automatically succeed to the Presidency. The Vice-President shall run the Board of Directors meeting in the case of the President's absence. The Vice-President shall assist in meeting site and time selection, program planning, and attend the NASBS Board of Directors Meetings. The Secretary and Treasurer may serve for a term up to three years. No officer shall serve more than one full term in the same office unless the Board of Directors votes by two-thirds approval to extend the term due to extraordinary circumstances.
- 4.2.0 Board of Directors. Control of the Society shall be vested in a Board of Directors representing a balance of the various scientific fields represented by the Society. The Board of Directors shall govern and manage the affairs of the Society in accord with the purposes and requirements of the bylaws, rules and regulations of the Society and in conformity with the laws governing its incorporation. The Board of Directors shall consist of the officers of the Society and up to 12 Directors-at-Large.
- 4.3.0 Directors-at-Large. The Directors-at-Large shall be nominated and elected by the members of the Society at the annual business meeting.
